Tequila Talks
These informal, off-the-record talks have become a premier cross-border forum for debating regional politics, immigration, human rights, labor and the looming fight over oil. Guest lecturers often speaking in Spanish, address their audiences with a splash of Cuervo and a good measure of candor, setting the stage for a provocative Q&A.

Art & Culture
Folk art, ceramics, and cultural celebrations bring the pungent flavors, vibrant colors and rhythmical sounds of Latin America to our multinational community.

Encuentros
This series of interviews with politicians and personalities is aired on the UCSD-TV and UC-TV networks. The programs focus on Latin America’s political systems, economic growth, trade and U.S. foreign policy in the hemisphere. After the broadcast, these interviews are available on the Internet at UCSD-TV/Encuentros.

Speaker Series
Political trends, foreign policy, investment and regional trade outlooks are the focus of business briefings by Latin American experts in this ongoing series.
